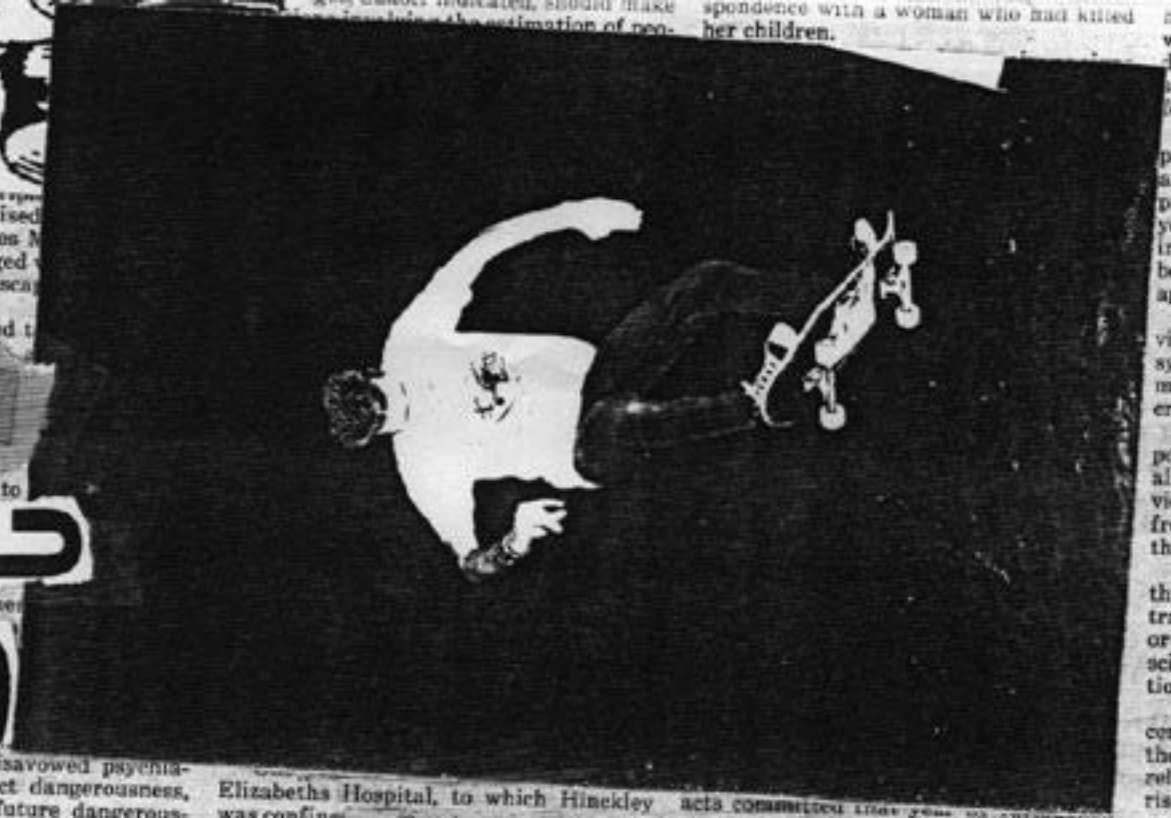
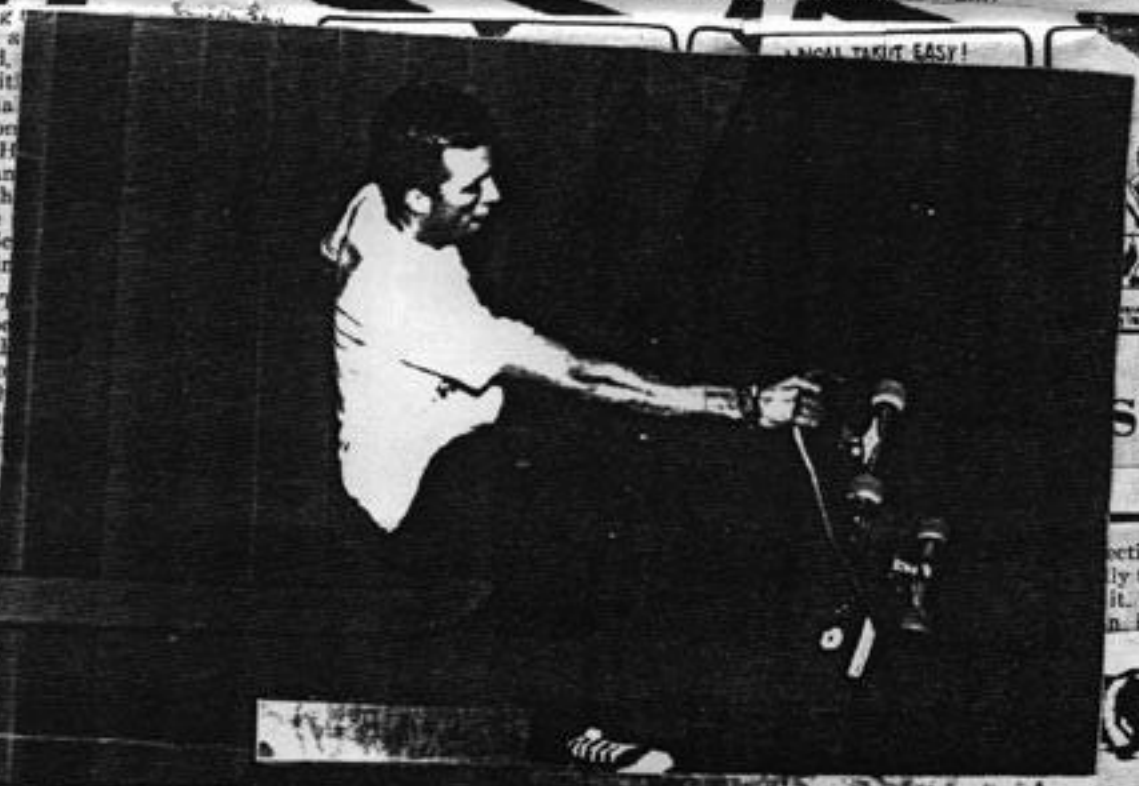
VISION



Skateboarders and roller skaters love the smooth, often inclined walkways, but that has had a downside. The skateboards have chipped away portions of concrete.



BUT A LOT OF COURTS OWE ME MONEY TOO. IT ALL EVENS OUT.

Like an emptiness so vast inside a box
That's a big hole
And it's nothingness
When you imagine you see it
what is your vision?
Always something else
Something's there but it's just a Land of nothings
How can you explain it
How can you even think You see it when you're not even there and you never can be because nothing is the only thing there.

Jason Croniger is the ruler of the Hard banks

"Like when I have a test or something and everything is coming down on me and I just say 'Fuck it, I'm going skating' and then in the middle of a good session you're not even thinking about it. That's Hot..." Matt Fredericks
